ELECTED OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION ALLOWANCE

County Council recognizes that each County Councillor will experience additional expenses related to communication requirements as an elected official. Such expenses might include acquisition of answering machines, voice mail, caller identification, cell phones, and payment of cell phone fees.

Therefore a Communication Allowance Fee shall be an amount approved at the annual organizational meeting.

Each County Councillor shall be paid the communication allowance in conjunction with the monthly expense claim, however it will not be necessary to produce receipts for the expenses.
